

TEKKEN

The No.1 fighting game
now a live-action movie

TEKKEN is one of the videogame industry's longest-running and most successful franchises with world wide sales of over 30 million units. Anchor Bay brings the game to life on DVD and blu-ray November 10.

The films cast includes Jon Foo (House of Fury, The Protector), Luke Goss (Hellboy 2: The Golden Army, Blade II), Kelly Overton (The Ring Two), Ian Anthony Dale (The Hangover, The Bucket List), Martial arts champion Gary Daniels (La Linea, The Expendables), Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa (Memoirs of a Geisha) and Tamlyn Tomita (The Eye, The Day After Tomorrow).

Rising from the ashes of a crumbled civilisation, gladiatorial combat has replaced warfare and ruthless fighters pit themselves against one another in a bid for global supremacy. From the Director of Halloween 4: The Return of Michael Myers and the writer of Wrong Turn and Spawn comes the high flying action feature TEKKEN, available to rent or own on DVD and blu-ray this November.

TEKKEN centres on Jin, a young man with street smarts and raw fighting skills who is driven by nothing more than vengeance for the murder of his mother. To exact his revenge he must defeat the world's most elite fighters in the greatest tournament ever known and become the King of Iron Fist.

Anchor Bay will support the release with a multi-layered, national marketing campaign targeting the huge, gamer fan base. Advertising will include national television, print and online.
